

If it is your child who needs care for mental health or substance abuse problems, you are not alone.

In Nebraska, you can...

1. Call a family organization in your area for help and support.
2. Register your child with Kids Connection, Nebraska's Children's Health Insurance Program sponsored by Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services, to make sure they can access all substance abuse or mental health services for which they are eligible. You can call Kids Connection at 1-877-632-5437.
3. Call a youth specialist at a Regional Behavioral Health Office for information about services in your area.

Funded by a grant from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Service Administration.
