

Operation: Reintegration Military Mental Health Workshop

October 21, 2011

St. Paul's United Methodist Church
324 S Jackson Street
Papillion, NE 68046

Sgt. Mark Fayolga

Being in the military can be a particularly stressful occupation that puts major strain on military families, especially with frequent deployments and fighting two wars.

During this 6-hour workshop sponsored by Interchurch Ministries of Nebraska, and featuring representatives from the National Military Family Association, Veterans Administration, National Guard, American Red Cross, Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital, and Military Family Life Consultants, you will learn about:

- Military culture
- Mental health concerns of soldiers and families
- Deployment cycle stressors
- Resources for families and soldiers

Who should attend?

- Faith Leaders
- Community Members
- Mental Health Professionals
- Military Families and Supporters
